

This Bookcase Will Just Fit Your Library

because it is a Globe-Wernicke Sectional and grows as your library grows.

Adding a section at a time, we fit them into those certain places in your rooms where bookcases really should be.

This bookcase gives an added attractiveness to the home, is well designed, and will serve a lifetime, because it is well constructed, and the dust-proof doors preserve your books.

We will be pleased to demonstrate.

B. W. Hooker & Co.
Vermont's Largest House Furnishers

WEST BERLIN

Miss Mabel Davis left Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. H. Brush, in Seabury, Mont.

Proctorial exercises by the schools, followed by a patriotic address by Rev. L. O. Sherburne, will be held in the ladies' aid hall Tuesday evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Ladies will meet with Mrs. Elmer Culver next Saturday afternoon to sew on Red Cross work.

Mrs. George Moore from Montpelier visited her sister, Mrs. H. W. Crockett, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Glines left here last Friday to visit their daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Hill, in Waterbury.

Mrs. L. L. Cooper and sister, Mrs. L. A. Stiles, spent a day in Montpelier last week.

The annual meeting of the Epworth league was held in the church last Saturday evening, when officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. C. A. Leonard; first vice-president, Mrs. R. S. Gove; second vice-president, Mrs. M. E. Glines; third vice-president, Miss Corrie Streeter; fourth vice-president, Miss Ella M. Ayers; secretary, Mrs. C. L. Slack; treasurer, Miss Ada Robinson; organist, Miss Addie E. Kimball.

Mrs. C. H. Robinson and daughter were in Montpelier last week.

Charles Patterson was in Montpelier Saturday, returning in his new automobile.

Some 12 or 14 women gathered at the home of Mrs. Orrin Kimball last Saturday afternoon to sew on Red Cross work.

Gerry Kimball took a number of the ladies from the village up there by auto.

Mrs. John Coburn has been quite ill the past week. Her daughter, Mrs. Lilla Brusa, from Montpelier, has been caring for her.

Raised Flag at St. Johnsbury.

St. Johnsbury, May 28.—The railroad boys residing in St. Johnsbury held a flag raising at Depot square yesterday afternoon which over 1,000 attended.

Station Agent Henderson presided and patriotic speeches were made by Rev. George A. Martin and Judge Harland B. Howe. Both speakers gave high praise to the railroad boys for what they were doing in the war. Last evening Grace Methodist church was crowded to listen to the pre-Memorial address to the Grand Army post by the pastor of the church, Rev. George A. Martin.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Rummage sale. Where? At the Congregational church June 2.—adv.

Mrs. Garrett T. Roberts of Elm street is passing several days with relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Wilhelmsen of Summer street are passing a few days with relatives in Concord, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Duncan and little child returned yesterday from a visit with friends in Brattleboro.

Miss Marion Taylor left Saturday for Marshfield, where she is passing a few days with her mother, Mrs. J. P. Willey.

The Red Cross society will meet to sew every Tuesday and Friday afternoon in the gymnasium at 2 o'clock until further notice.

All Barre Retail Merchants' association stores will be open on Tuesday, May 29, until 9 o'clock p. m., and closed all day May 30.

Samuel McLean of Littleton, N. H., is visiting his nephew, Angus McDonald, of Kirk street and with other relatives in Barre and vicinity.

Miss Mary Piper, who has been receiving treatment following an operation at the City hospital, was removed to her home on Summer street Saturday.

Alexander Innes returned Sunday to New Haven, Conn., after passing a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greig of South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Whitcomb, who have been passing the winter in Jacksonville, Fla., have returned to Barre and have re-opened their house on Washington street.

There will be a meeting of the civic department of the Barre Woman's club at Miss Ellen Hoar's office, Howland building, Tuesday evening, May 29, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Shepard, chairman.

Walter J. O'Kelley of Headquarters company passed Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O'Kelley, leaving to-day for his post. He has been commissioned cook for the Headquarters company.

All clergymen, with their wives, who reside in the city and town of Barre, are invited to the dinner at the Congregational vestry on Memorial day, May 30. Per order Memorial day committee.

Alexander Cormack returned last evening from Burlington, where he passed the week and with James Coutts of this city, who is recovering from a serious surgical operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital.

Sons and grandsons of soldiers, sailors or marines, and all visiting members of the order are requested to meet at the hall of Maj. L. A. Abbott camp, No. 14, Vermont St. of V., Wednesday, May 30, at 8 o'clock to participate in Memorial day exercises.

A goodly number attended the initial meeting of the Bible class under the leadership of G. A. A. Jones in the Salvation Army hall last evening. Mr. Jones' introductory on the pre-millennial coming of Christ was much appreciated and an increased attendance is anticipated next Sunday.

Troy hill school gave an entertainment in grange hall Friday evening before a large and appreciative audience. The entertainment was called "The Stars and Stripes' Jubilee, or Columbia's Birthday Party."

All the scholars took part and did much credit to themselves and their respective teachers, Miss Gladys Perkins and Miss Helen Hack.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beagrie of Keith avenue, while guests of Charles Howland in Cabot yesterday, had the unusual experience of dipping snow from a field near the Howland house and using it for sugaring-off purposes.

In sequestered woods snow banks almost anywhere this year, but old residents of Cabot have seldom seen it in the open fields on May 27.

Mission fathers from the Roman Catholic diocese of Springfield, Mass., completed a series of services for the women of St. Monica's parish Saturday and began a men's mission at the 11 o'clock mass Sunday forenoon. Through the week the first mass daily will be celebrated at 5 o'clock. The missionaries will conclude their labors in the local parish next Sunday.

Rev. S. T. Simpson, pastor of the Presbyterian church in South Ryegate, who preached at morning and evening services in the First Presbyterian church yesterday in exchange with Rev. Edgar Crossland, left this morning for Plattsburgh, N. Y., where he will visit for a few days before returning home.

Mr. Simpson has offered himself as a chaplain in the United States navy, and while he may not be assigned to duty aboard ship, he expects that he may be of service in some of the yards along the Atlantic coast.

Hebrews of Barre, in common with their orthodox brethren throughout the world, began the observance of the Festival of the Weeks at sun down Saturday. The holiday is also known as the feast of "First Fruits" and the book of Ruth, with its harvest scenes, is designated as a special scroll for reading. In keeping with the deeper meaning of the festival, it has been chosen in American synagogues as the most appropriate occasion for boys and girls to pledge their love and loyalty to the covenant of their fathers. Wherever there are synagogues, the rites of confirmation are administered to many young people during the Festival of the Weeks.

One S. Seales, son of C. E. Seales of North Main street, is one of the partners in a firm which recently purchased the jewelry stock of the late C. L. M. Bugbee in Newport, a brother of the late E. A. Bugbee of Barre, who, for a long time conducted one of the largest jewelry stores in northern Vermont. Mr. Seales' partner is W. E. Bond, also a jeweler, and the firm will occupy the store established by Mr. Bugbee, the firm name being Seales & Co. As a resident of Barre, Mr. Seales was employed in F. E. Burr's store after leaving Goddard seminary. Seven years ago he went to Newport and sometime later established himself in the jewelry business there.

GRANITEVILLE.

The ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church and the Hospital Aid association will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. N. Roach to sew for the hospital. All members of both societies are invited.

G. C. I. A. Regular Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A. of A. will be held in the opera house on Monday evening, May 28, at 7 o'clock.

Una riunione regolare dell'Unione degli Scapellati (branch di Barre) avrà luogo nella opera house on Monday evening, May 28 at 7 o'clock.

J. D. Will, secretary.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

Are You Ready for Decoration Day?

Decoration Day—doubly significant this year—for, as the nation pays tribute to the heroes who rallied to the flag in '61, the men of '17 prepare to emulate their high example.

When grandmother was a girl, she celebrated Decoration Day in frills, furbelows and a hoop skirt. The modern maid in her blouse and correctly tailored wash skirt or dress is quite as patriotic—and equally charming.

Whatever your Decoration Day plans may be you will wish to be correctly costumed, and correct summer attire must take into consideration coolness and comfort as well as style, so we unhesitatingly recommend one of the unusually attractive new skirt or dress models.

Thin Summer Dresses

We are now showing an unusually large line of thin Summer Dresses, which you will soon need and enjoy. You will be surprised to see how nice a style and how good a quality you can get this season at from $3.98 to $5.50. These Dress values you will find in quality of unusual fineness, mostly in Plain and Colored Voile. We bought these Dresses early. The cloths were bought before the advance in prices, and we are giving you the benefit of our buy.

The young lady will want a new Hat for Decoration Day. Our line of LIDS FOR KIDS will just please these young ladies. These are Hats at a popular price, and a style and quality that is right.

In our Millinery Department we are making some special prices on a lot of the season's best Hat values.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's line of summer dresses. Have you seen those pre-shrunk skirts at Abbott's?

Don't miss the big white shoe sale at Shea's Tuesday.

Henry H. Hodgdon of Highland avenue returned this morning from Lancaster, N. H., where he was called last week by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary Hodgdon.

Ernest Lafayette, who has been employed for some years as a barber in the Holt shop, completed his duties Saturday evening and left this morning for Fort Ethan Allen, where he enlisted last week in the 1st Vermont regiment.

Before Judge S. C. Wilson in Washington county court Saturday, a hearing was held on the application for temporary alimony made by Emily Case in a divorce petition brought by her against her husband, Hilard Cass. Mrs. Case was represented by F. E. Gleason and her husband appeared for himself. The woman was accompanied in court by her child. She alleged that her husband provided short rations at home, an allegation to which the latter issued an emphatic denial, claiming, instead, that he not only furnished plenty of food, but had been compelled to board his wife's relations. To support his contention that there had been food in abundance, the man submitted a grocer's slip. In addition he said he was ready to support his wife, but did not feel able to take care of several families. The Cass family lived for some time at the corner of Washington and Camp streets, but recently moved to a house on the Montpelier road.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sale of Floor sample sewing machines at Fitts'.

Monday and Tuesday, children's hats, 75c, to close out at 38c each. Mrs. Shepard Co., Inc.

Mrs. E. Venetti and little child have arrived in the city from Charlestown, N. H., to join Mr. Venetti, who has been employed here for several weeks.

Dr. Jesse K. Marden, a medical missionary in Turkey, gave an interesting talk at the Congregational church yesterday morning, describing the conditions which the war has brought about in that country. Dr. Marden was well fitted to speak comprehensively concerning the mission work as he has been for many years engaged in the medical branch there and his father before him was a missionary in Turkey. Previous to the address by Dr. Marden, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Barnett, made a strong appeal for subscriptions to the Liberty loan bond and for additions to the Red Cross forces.

Action recently taken by the Barre branch of the Granite Cutters' International association was told as follows in the news columns of the Burlington Daily News Saturday: "A letter has been received by Martin S. Vilas from Henry Alexander, president, and Joseph D. Will, secretary of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A., in which they write as follows: 'By unanimous vote of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A. we are instructed to convey the appreciation and thanks of that body for courtesies extended our legislative committee and for your consistent stand for the rights of labor, organized and otherwise, during the late general assembly.'"

TALK OF THE TOWN

Lids for Kids at Abbott's.

See those bargains. Rag rugs. Fitts' annex.

George E. Leithner of Orange street has been passing a few days in Bellows Falls on business.

The photograph of a miniature urn, finely wrought, is the rare memento of the war in Europe which Mrs. Isabella Thomson of Spaulding street has received. The story of the urn, which was carved by a former Barre granite cutter who was killed in battle last December, is told as follows in an Aberdeen, Scotland, periodical, which furnishes an excellent half-tone of Private Clark's handiwork: "The above is a photograph of an urn cut by Private A. S. Clark, C. company, 1st Canadian division, B. E. F., who was killed in France Dec. 18, 1916. The only tool that Bro. Clark had was his jack-knife, and he cut it while in the trenches in France. The urn was sent home to his parents, who reside at 33 Richmond street, Aberdeen. Private Clark served his apprenticeship with Stewart & Co., Fraser road, Aberdeen, and after working some time in the city he went to Itherville, Canada. For two years Private Clark was a resident of Barre, being employed there as a granite cutter. In 1915 he joined a regiment of Canadian grenadiers, and after a short term in the training camp he went to France. In Barre he was a well known member of the Bonacords, belonged to the Iroquois tribe of Red Men, and was a member of the Meadow Brook Golf club. Acquaintances spoke of him as a young man of many fine qualities. He was a comedian of great ability and his unflinching good nature made him a prime favorite within every circle. Private Clark was 26 years of age and, besides his parents, he leaves two brothers, who are with the colors."

C. L. U. COMMITTEES

Named By the President, Alexander Ironside.

At a regular meeting of the Central Labor union of Barre and vicinity, held in the new organization hall in the Worthen block, the president, Alexander Ironside, announced the following committee appointments:

Credentials—Angus McDonald of the granite cutters, John Donald of the paving cutters, Garrett Roberts of the plumbers, Asa Tyrrell of the polishers, and James Barclay of the bakers.

Label and unionizing—Cyrus R. Hall of the carpenters, Alex Moir of the granite cutters, W. O. Averill of the painters, for Barre; Arthur Rousse of the steam engineers and George Nevins of the paving cutters, for Graniteville and East Barre.

Organizing—Wesley Hoffman of the cigar makers, William Halvosa of the plumbers, for Barre; John McAlay of the quarry workers and P. C. Tucker of the granite cutters, for Graniteville and East Barre.

Educational—E. L. House of the barbers, George Ross of the bakers, C. J. Pillsbury of the typographical union, Carl Johnson of the polishers and A. J. Young of the tool sharpeners.

Press—The president, Alex Ironside, and the secretary, Angus McDonald.

Resolutions—John King of the quarry workers, J. J. McMahon of the machinists, Angus McDonald of the granite cutters, A. M. Rossi of the musicians and William McDonald of the typographical union.

GRANITEVILLE

Will have a full line of white hats at Gilbert's store, upper Graniteville, Tuesday, May 29. Mrs. A. M. Carroll.

H. M. Farnham

Sale and Exchange
Stables

Montpelier, Vt.

One express carload of Horses will go on sale

Thursday, May 31

In this lot there are good single horses, also pairs. They are all colors and sizes, and the most of them are right out of the harness.

On the following day at 1 p. m. we will hold an auction sale of horses. There will be a good assortment of horses at this sale.

The Eastman Store

Having bought Eastman Bros.' business, we wish to announce to the many patrons of the store that we hope to continue serving them satisfactorily, and to the public that we solicit an increasing share of their patronage.

A. A. BOYCE — W. H. WESCOTT

Preserve Your Eggs

The simple expedient of sealing eggs by preserving them in a solution of water glass or sodium silicate. Not only will it keep eggs from six months to a year, but retains to a remarkable degree the characteristics of freshness. A careful housewife will buy her eggs at early summer prices and put them down fresh at that time and have an extra food for the family at about one-half of the market rate when next December comes.

There's a difference in Water Glass!
Try ours—25c per quart

Drown's Drug Store
48 North Main Street

Memorial Day For Picnics and Outings

We have a full line to supply your lunches.

Boned Chicken, Lunch Tongue, Lobster, Crab Meat, Shrimps, Sardines, Corned Beef, Deviled Ham, Boiled Ham, Pressed Ham, Roast Beef, Queen Olives, Sweet and Sour Pickles, Phoenix Brand Lunch Cheese and Imported Elkhorn Kraft Cheese, Roquefort, Swiss, Five-Year-old, Young America, Sage and Plain Cheese, Oranges, Bananas, Fancy Cake, and Cookies.
3 cans Boneless Sardines 50c
3 cans Peaches or Pears 55c
Welch's Grape Juice, Moxie, Ginger Ale, Lime Juice.
Strawberries fresh every day.
Remember, we are closed all day Wednesday.

The Smith & Cumings Co.
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

Monday Special

St. Lawrence Brand Sifted Sweet Wrinkled Peas,
18c value, to-day
(Only five to a customer.)

Two cans of Red Kidney Beans for 25c
Yellow Cling Peaches, large cans 18c
Tall can Fancy Steak Salmon is a bargain at 22c
Flat can Fancy Steak Salmon is a bargain at 25c
1/4-lb. cans best Steak Salmon 15c
Tall cans Pink Salmon 15c
Those large cans of Solid Packed Blue Label Tomatoes are a bargain at 20c
Add the water yourself if you want a cheaper grade.
3 lbs. of Prunes for 25c
1 lb. of Pearl Barley in packages 10c
2 cans of Van Camp's Evaporated Milk for 25c

Our Pure Home-Rendered Lard on the 24c basis is the cheapest shortening on the market to-day. Lards will be higher.

There is to be a government tax on Teas and Coffees, which will increase the price. We are still selling at the old price.

Store open Tuesday evening; closed Wednesday.

The F. D. Ladd Company